

WHAT ELSE IN C, D, O & CC, $5? JAN. 3, 1971
DEAR STAN,

I BELIEVE THERE ARE NEARLY HALF OF THE 13 GOLD PIECES THAT
I WILL KEEP. THE 44D & 1836-22¹/₂ &
1846 C^{$5} ARE ONES I FEEL I WILL SURELY RETURN. HOWEVER I WOULD LIKE TO TRY TO SELL SOME OF
THESE DURING THE FUN. SHOW THIS WEEK. SO IF AGREEABLE I'LL SEND PAYMENT ALONG WITH THOSE NOT WANTED BY JAN 11TH.

THERE ARE ABOUT ^{SEVEN} ~~20~~ MORE COINS
ON YOUR LIST THAT I WOULD LIKE TO SEE & THIS COMING WEEK SHOULD BE AN IDEAL TIME FOR ME ~~TO~~ SELL
SOME MORE COINS. IF YOU WILL,
PLEASE SEND THE FOLLOWING —
$5 - 18450 & 18540 & 1804^(THE NICER ONE) OR 1805
$3 - 1860, 1882, 1886, 1856 S

I APPRECIATE YOUR SENDING THE
GOLD ON APPROVAL AND AM COMING UP WITH QUIT A BIT OF INTEREST NOW. MAY HAVE TO REST A BIT AFTER SHOW, BUT BUSINESS HAS BEEN BETTER IN DECEMBER.

Dear Stan:

I think I am going into a new business.
Yes! - - - Coin Repairs.....

I guess I did a pretty good job because
I just received a check for the 1890, so
I have developed a new skill.

Enclosed is a check for $185.00. Do you have an 1871-S $10 in XF or better, and an 1871 $1.00 also in XF or better. If you do, don't send them, but let me know so that I can advise my customer.

Dear Stan,

I have herein returned the 1865 $5 & $10;
1877 $5 & $10 and the 1875-S $5. I was using an old list when I talked with you, and my man already had the 1865 & 1877's. I have credited your auction account for the $400 on the 1872 $10, leaving a balance due us of $166.15. I can use the following coins EF or better at reasonable prices: $10 ~~76-2~~,

Dear Jack:

Client here changed his mind on what he wants. I am returning most of the coins.

Sent back 6 in one package, 12 in another and enclosed are these 6 coins of yours:

22	25 Gold
1806/4	1816	1814
1805	1810	1813
	1812	1812
	1813

I am also enclosing the 1920-S 410 for $3600. and the 1920-S for the 1920-S and 1852-O $20 which was $500.

So as of now you have $3600. of mine and I have these 6 coins of yours:

20 Gold	25 Gold	25 Gold
1921 $2750.	1798 $1900.	1811
		1812
		1813
		1814
		1811
		1812

I need prices on the 25 gold

Best, this is very important. Please rush to go air mail special both your 1930-S 410 gold coins. I need two and will get them elsewhere I rather move yours as I know how much you want to sell them. I must have the coins in my hands by Wed. March 24th.

Next time you send coins to me you must send an invoice along inside the package. It makes things easier for me.

Very best wishes,

Stan Kesselman

S. P. I'll be in L.A. end of March if I feel OK.

Dear Jack:

Enclosed please find these 13 coins:

$1 Gold	$2 1/2 Gold	$2 1/2 Gold
1857-8	1795	1800
1858-9	1798 (2)	1811
1857-8	1800
1858-9	1804 (2)
	1805

This leaves me with these 3 coins:

1821 $20 $2750.41/2
1858-D $1 AU
1795 $10 $1900.41/2

I would like to sell the coins I have returned at lower prices.

For example, the 1858-D which is AU you priced at $25.00. The coin backs at that in EF, so you want full book. If you want $25.00 for the coin I think I can sell it. Let me know by return. I have to sell the coin for under book.

I would pay $30. for the 1857-8 $1.
I would pay $400. for the 1821 $20
I would pay $1900. for the 1795 $5 it is a very fine.
I'll pay $25.00 for the 1858-D $1
The 1795 I gave you at $1900..and the 1800 at $2750.

I think you priced the 1857-8 $10 reasonable

Dear Stan:

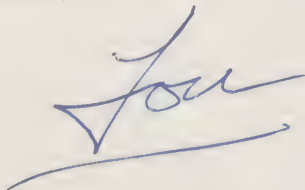

Tried to reach you for a period but guess you were away. Anyway, my customer bought an 1871-S $10, but he isn't happy with it and would like to improve it. If you want to take a chance I will send it to him and if it is nicer than the one he has, he will keep it. If not, he will send it back.

If you want to chance it, send it to me when you get it.

Thanks for your list and I will see what I can do now that baseball is here again. I'll try to raise my batting average.

Oh yes... I can use your 1913-S $20 if it is a real choice coin. Also in Choice BU I can use all of the 1913 gold, all mints, except the P & D $20 and the P $10. This is for a birth year set so I need real nice BU material on this one.

Stan:

Just returned from Calif. and find yours of 5/1 at hand. Your letter is in error in several respects. (1) the defect on the throat of the coin is not a cut but from the die. (2) this defect was mentioned when you looked at the coin in St. Louis. (3) The coin was not sent on approval, but was an acceptance of your SPECIFIC OFFER, and on the basis of your statement that you had seen the coin and if I would send it I would have your check in the amount of your offer promptly and without any problem.

Now as to your various statements about a client, clients etc. certainly this is not my responsibility, as I did not assume the task of selling the coin for you.

On the basis of your own letters I believe I could legally collect the 75.00 balance due from you. Or I may decide to file a complaint with the ANA, or I may decide to just let you owe me the 75.00 for the rest of your life. I reserve the right to use any of these options.

If you made a mistake it is your responsibility you have no right to charge your mistakes up to me. You are choosing a cheap and unwise way to make $75.00 (you can't even guess that close to the value of such a coin.) Besides you could have made it back several times over as I was in the process of making up a long list of Rare Gold to send to several dealers, but when I have an unpleasant experience with anyone (dealer or not) that's ALL for me, ONCE IS ENOUGH.

I have just been informed that my 1907 $10 Gold in proof has just been sold.

I expect to also sell a few of the other proof gold coins in the next few weeks:

I can let you have these 5 coins:

1886 $2½ Pr.

1887 $2½ Pr.

1864 $5 Pr.

1877 $5 Pr.

1889 $10 Pr.

Price for the lot is $4600.

I will hold the lot intact for at least one week.

Mr. Kesselman:

There are many bargains
around these days - coins & elsewhere - so I am not interested other than at a very nominal change in my bid for the coins in real poor condition. Money seems to be necessary these days and bargains are available - perhaps not with you but elsewhere.

Thanks anyway, Regards!

Dear Stanley:

May I apologize for not answering your letter sooner, however my dad passed away the first of June, and was buried June the 5th. I am trying to catch up with my work, and it has been difficult.

Our mutual friend Joel Coen, has spoken to me many times of you, and I might add very highly.

I will be contacting you in the very near future with some early, and rare date gold. Thank you very much for taking the time to let me know of your needs.

Respectfully

Dear Stan,

Only two 1911-D eagles are on hand and they are only AU, so I can do you no good at all on them in unc. I'll let you look through my dwindling stock at Washington next month. A local party has a quantity of nice unc. 1900-P eagles which can be re-offered to you at $35.50 each for ten or more subject to price change without notice.

Sincerely yours,

Thank you for your letter. The 1885 $20 gold piece has been sold. If you see anything else of interest from any of our current listings.

I am leaving soon on a trip and will not return until after the ANA Convention. If you attend the ANA Convention you might show me what you have available there - or else send me a package after that date.

I hope that all is well with you.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I have yours of 14 July 1971. Yes I would like to see your 1834 $5 Gold coins and the $1 1849 coins. May I suggest you package them carefully to keep them from banging against one another in transit. Being so soft gold coins ought to be treated with respect, else one can lose a grade.

On the 1796 no stars and 1808 $2½ Gold I can use strong fine or better (by Brown and Dunn grading).

Dear Stan:

Thank you for your prompt shipment of the two $20.00 Gold that I ordered for a client. I have shown them & I have been challenged on the grading.

The St. Gaudens piece has wear on knee & breast & on reverse has wear on the lower breast feathers

The Liberty $20.00 piece is a poor BU

I am not telling you this to dispare the coins as I would rather have a good relationship with you. However I am selling these coins to my customer & want him satisfied.

My client has requested a reduction on the price of the coins can you in fairness to yourself regrade & reprice.

Very truly

Leu Tobin

Will return coins immediately as soon as I hear from you or forward check for any corrected figure you come up that is satisfactory to yourself & my client

Many thanks

Dear Stan:

Received your note and despite the additional evidence, regret that I will have to make a re-initial. I am not talking about price merely to increase my profit. We are talking about the fact that, based upon what I'll have to say, this is only a "space filler" and while I can't count the interest on this money, I do want to get my customer out relatively whole when we get another coin and go to resell this. It is not something for which I'll have another client; there are much cheaper dates of this type. Also, I have found that I was making a mistake in 1776. The minute I refused to duck the alleged "hook", the coin didn't sell although a new high was reported.

The obverse had no punch. It also had my client puzzled. You of course, know what our problem was. As a well-known describer would describe it for some well-known auctioneer, the obverse had been "thoroughly scrubbed". While admittedly that is better than the acid bath that we had presumed, it still makes it a marked coin and one that many collectors would eschew.

I'm sorry to have delayed you on this, he is a busy guy. We have been trying to get together for days but weren't able to; today I went fishing. So, we finally talked it over on the phone and now at 10:43 p.m. I'm back up here at my office dictating so that it can be written tomorrow, Friday, and you'll have the weekend to think it over. Let me know if anything you can do.

Confidentially,

Stamps

Dear Stan:

I finally heard from my party and he is sending a check for the two gold pieces that Julian Leidman asked you to send to me. I am enclosing my check in the amount of $680.00 as payment accordingly.

If the Brilliant Uncirculated 1869 Dollar gold piece comes back, you might send it to me and I will send it to my customer. Outside of that, really don't know of anything special I can use. If I think of anything before this letter goes out, will make a notation at the bottom of the letter.

Cordially yours,

Dan

Dear Stan,

Thanks for looking at coin---I called customer and he says at $400 he couldnt sell and pay commissions-he says and I agree---

If you can pay $425 for coin--send check--that way I make $25 and he happy-and me happy too.

If not--customer said no problem--send piece back--no hard feelings.

So either send check for $425 or return coin air mail registered and thanks again for your interest.

Are you looking these days for anything in ~~xxxxxx~~ particular??

I hit a lot of local dealers during the week---let me know what you are looking for and I will keep my eyes open for you.

Thanks again,

Bob

Dear Stan:

Received your nice note of the 23rd, and we are returning the 1806 $5 gold piece via insured parcel post as of Tuesday. I still have the 1801 ten; almost sold it the other day, but the customer took another gold coin instead.

On the 1848 (al $2½): Let's see it. I was talking with my customer today and he is somewhat interested in it. He doesn't go in for many of these rarities of this nature; instead he likes the first year of issue of each gold coin, as well as the silver, nickel and copper -- and which he has most of them. The only trouble is: right now he just bought over $3,000 worth from me, and he is low on money. But I am sure he can get it without too much trouble if he should decide he wants to keep the coin. At least it is worth a try, so please send it on at your earliest convenience. You might mention the famous estate if possible. It might influence the customer.

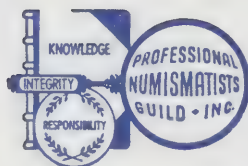

I'll keep trying on the 1801 ten. Will let you know on return it within the next week or so.

Very cordially yours,

Dan

Dear Stan -

You are ingenious - getting together such a magnificent collection of double eagles - same die wanted for twenty years - Prices are fair at the retail level.

I'll see what I can do with the list.

Meanwhile if the 1850 A.V. is nice I'll take it. Can't use

E.F. Can you use 1853 Moffatt $20 AU+?

Is the 1893 CC Bu. immaculate?
If so I'll buy.

Hope you are having a good season.

Kindest regards
